☐

No

If not, explain: _____

Division 8, Article VI, Section 110-576 of the City of Madeira Beach Code of Ordinances establishes the following requirements and restrictions for a Home Occupation:

- (A) Purpose: To protect the character of residential neighborhoods while promoting activities that reduce automobile trips resulting in less air pollution and traffic congestion.
- (B) Applicability: Residential dwelling units.
- (C) Required Permits: A Business Tax Receipt is required.
- (D) Restrictions: A home occupation is allowed as an accessory use in a bona fide residential dwelling unit when it complies fully with the following conditions:
 - 1. The establishment of a home occupation must be clearly incidental to the use of the dwelling as a residence. The maximum floor area devoted to a home occupation shall be twenty-five (25%) of the gross floor area of the dwelling unit.
 - 2. There shall be no exterior changes to the building such as converting a garage or enclosing a carport.
 - 3. No display of inventory shall be allowed.
 - 4. A home occupation use shall not generate nuisances such as on-street parking, noise, electrical interference, fumes, excessive trash, or hazards.
 - 5. No persons shall be employed on the site other than the residents of the dwelling unit. This restriction shall not preclude activities allowed under the home occupation, such as tutoring, to take place at the client's residence.

DISCLAIMER: According to Florida Statutes, Chapter 119, it is the policy of this state that all state, county, and municipal records are open for personal inspection and copying by any person. Providing access to public records is a duty of each agency. All documents and information not specified in F.S. 119.071 and 119.0713 are subject to public record requests.

6. All home occupation activities must take place within the private areas of the residence and shall not be visible from adjacent streets or properties.
 7. Traffic generation shall not exceed the normal type and volume generated by a residential dwelling unit.
- (E) Non-compliance: Failure to comply with all provisions of the home occupation or violation of any of the restrictions or other applicable regulations shall result in a Notice of Violation for the first offense and a loss of home occupation privileges, and a non-renewal of the Business Tax receipt for a second offense.
